“ Randy was my friend, we spent a lot of time together going places. He had a heart of Gold and it was so easy to take advantage him witch several did and I pray that God will take care of them. Randy could've been a millionaire in this life . So I know now he's a very rich man in heaven where there's no such thing as thugs.I will miss my friend and how we enjoyed simple things. Save me a Rock to sit on ,will see you soon.

“ I have a lot of memories with Randy! He was a awesome man and would do anything to help anyone. He never placed judgement on anyone. I've know you for about 26yrs and you loved to pick on me and call me a cute little boy when I was little! Although you wasn't my family, we became family
You will definitely be missed. And I promise you'll never be forgotten We love you old man, go rest High On That Mountain
Love you,

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Randy. Randy was one of the kindest men I ever met. He was always willing to help when it was needed, just like his sweet Mom and Dad. Know that the family will be in my heart and prayers.
