“ What is the measure of a man? Definitions vary of course, but mine is fairly simple. A man stands tall in the face of adversity. A man works hard, and provides for his family. A man protects, listens, and loves his family. But most importantly, a man leaves this world better than he found it. Terry had one daughter, and two sons. I am blessed that I married his daughter Denise, and gained brothers in Josh and Jason. Denise has given me a son, Aiden, and a daughter, Isabella. We have a wonderful life. None of this would have been possible without Terry Cagle. Terry certainly left this world better than he found it, and for that I am eternally grateful. My heartfelt condolences to all of his family in this time of mourning. God bless you Terry.
