“ Sis Alma Westbrook was such a good Christian woman. She would call every week and check on my Dad and mom before they passed away. Mom passed 2010 and Sis Westbrook called every week and talked to my daddy Rev TZStone. My sister Pat and I loved her. She was so sweet and kind. I didn't know she was in hospice care. You will miss her but she definitely has a heavenly reward. Prayers for the family.

“ I remember her from old Sumiton Church of God. She was always nice to me, would speak to me whenever she saw me out somewhere. She was my aunt's sister, but she also felt like my family too.
