“ Andy was my real estate agent working with me to sell a property. We were only related through a business transaction but I got the sense he really cared for me and the other people he served. He was always the ultimate professional and a gentleman and I really liked him and his approach - so personal and human! God bless Andy - welcome home! To his family - blessings on you and even though I don't know you, you are in my prayers and thoughts as you deal with your loss of Andy.
