“ Aunt Sue as I called her in my youth because she was my aunt Ruth’s sister and a lot of her family would come to our Giles reunion. The other place we were together was at church. She was a devoted Christian and church member. She has many stars in her crown. Much love to the Pridmore and Grant families. She will be missed

“ I started working at Amerex in 2002 and Mrs Sue trained me for my job. Later in 2021 I found her living in Oneonta and I visited her a few times. She was the best!!! Always smiling. She had a very lucky family to have her in it all these years and I know she will be missed.

“ I remember when I had my daughter Sheri Uncle Tommy and Aunt Sue told me if I would let them have her I could come see her anytime I wanted to. They only had the 4 boys and wanted a girl. But I told them no that they could come see her anytime they wanted too. 🙏🙏🙏❤️❤️❤️
