

Annie S. Slovensky

June 14, 1915 - April 13, 2012

Mrs. Annie S. Slovensky, 96, passed away peacefully April 13, 2012. A native of Brookside for over 90 years, she lived out her life in her new home in Gardendale. Mrs. Slovensky's beloved husband of 35 years, Albert A. Slovensky, passed away on April 28, 1973. She was also preceded in death by her son, Albert E. Slovensky, of Spartanburg, South Carolina; her parents, Joseph and Catherine Slatsky of Brookside, and all of her siblings. She is survived by her daughter, Helen S. Baty (Jim), of Hoover, her son, Louis E. Slovensky (Sharon) of Gardendale. Her daughter in law, Ann S. Slovensky of Atlanta. Eleven grandchildren, twenty six great grandchildren and two grandchildren by affection.

Mrs. Slovensky loved all of her family, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and spent much time with all of them, especially at her home in Brookside. She led by quiet and loving example and was a model of love, kindness, and charity.

She was a friend to all; an excellent cook; a wonderful wife and mother; and she shared her gifts and talents with all; always taking care of those around her and those in need.

Visitation will Sunday April 15, 2012 6-8pm at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Adamsville with prayer service at 7 pm. A Funeral Mass will be held at St. Patrick's Monday, April 16, 2012 at 11 am burial at St. Michael's Catholic Cemetery, Brookside.
Very Reverend Vernon Hugley officiating.

“ What a wonderfully sweet woman your mother was Helen. Her pleasant unaffected ways reminded me so of my own dear Mom. I know you all will miss her terribly. Our love to you.
