

Betty Holcomb

September 23, 1932 - September 5, 2012

Betty June Chance-Holcomb, daughter of John Henry Chance and Mary Evelyn Waldrop, born in West Jefferson County September 23rd, 1932, passed away at her Chelsea, Alabama home on September 5th, 2012.

Survived by her husband of 59 years, Colonel Rowland Holcomb, her children Stephen, David, Denise and Charlie, seven grandchildren, and one great grandson.

She was a graduate of Saint Vincent's Nursing School, 1953. Served as a surgical nurse at Druid City Hospital and Children's Hospital until 1958. Supported her family and husband throughout our country's missions to Korea and Vietnam, including seven years in Germany. Remained a shining light of encouragement and love to her husband, children and grandchildren throughout the rest of her days.

She enjoyed bird watching, cooking delicious meals, and attending services at Morning Star United Methodist Church in Chelsea, Alabama.

A graveside service will be held at Free Will Cemetery, West Jefferson County, Alabama on Tuesday September 11, 2012 at 11 am. There will be no public viewing.
