

Carl Minyard

July 20, 1957 - February 23, 2022

Richard Carl Minyard , age 64 or Brookside, passed away Wednesday, February 23, 2022. He graduated in the class of 1976. He was a member of Bethel Baptist Church and retired from Joe Piper Paper Company. He was an incredible and hard working employee for about 24 years. He was a dedicated father to Michella Minyard, and son to Glenn and Francis Minyard. He enjoyed going to Gospel signings and Antique Shows with family and friends. He had a love for classic cars, especially his 57 Gold Chevrolet. He was an avid Alabama Crimson Tide fan who cheered them on every Saturday. Carl was a selfless and kindhearted man that left a special impression on each person he met. He was loved by so many and will be remembered for his soft-spoken, tender hearted spirit.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Daun.

Carl was survived by his daughter, Michella Minyard; parents, Glenn and Frances Minyard; brother, Billy Minyard; sister, Robin Gilliam (Charles); and several nieces, nephews, and other family and friends.

I am so, so sorry to hear of Carl's passing. He was one of the kindest cousins I have. Every time I ran in to him, off and on , through the years we enjoyed catching up with each other and our families. May God comfort you during this time. Frances Pledger Smith
