

Carolyn Speigle

March 19, 1942 - May 14, 2025

Carolyn Lee Speigle, 83, of Jasper, Alabama, passed away peacefully on May 14, 2025, surrounded by her family at Ridgeview Health Services in Jasper.

Born on March 19, 1942, in Walker County, Alabama, Carolyn was the seventh of eight children born to Cecil and Hazel Bland. She spent much of her early life in Sumiton and Dora, graduating from Dora High School in 1960. After high school, Carolyn wanted to work “in town” and got a job at Loveman’s Department Store in downtown Birmingham.

On February 27, 1971, Carolyn married her high school sweetheart, Nelson Speigle, and they welcomed their only child, Dorian, in 1973. They had a lifelong partnership that was marked by love, companionship, and shared adventures including many road trips across many states. Wherever you saw one, you saw the other. Both die-hard Auburn fans, Carolyn and Nelson enjoyed watching and attending Auburn sporting events throughout their marriage, including a trip to the College World Series in Omaha in 2019.

Carolyn re-entered the workforce once her daughter was older. She worked for a number of years at the Jefferson County Department of Education Operations Center where she developed life-long friendships. After she retired, Carolyn spent much of her time gardening, traveling, and visiting friends and family. Carolyn's devotion to her loved ones was at the heart of everything she did, and she was dear to those who knew her.

Carolyn was a long-time member of Forestdale Baptist Church and more recently, North Shelby Baptist Church.

Carolyn is survived by her beloved husband of 54 years, Nelson Speigle; her daughter, Dorian Morrison and son-in-law, Brett; grandchildren Emelia, Owen, and Isla; sisters Marie Sandlin and Emogene (Jim) Cantley; sister-in-law Gwen Bland; sister-in-law Shirley Bland; sister-in-law Brenda Sims; brother-in-law Phillip Speigle and his wife, Janice; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Cecil and Hazel Bland; her sister Ruby Phillips; brothers Burvel Bland, Doyle Bland, Kenneth Bland, Raymond Bland and his wife, Marie; and brother-in-law, Durwood Sims.

A funeral service will be held on May 17, 2025, at New Horizon Funeral Home in Sumiton, AL at 11:00am with a visitation prior to the funeral from 10:00am to 11:00am.

The family invites all who knew and loved Carolyn to attend and celebrate her life.

A special thank you to those family members and friends who have helped care for

Carolyn over the past month including those who have visited her, advocated for her, comforted her, and shown her so much love. Thank you also to those who have done heavy lifting to support Carolyn and Nelson. A special thank you also to all the professionals who have been involved in Carolyn's care over the past seven months, especially the kind nurses and aides who helped usher Carolyn to her waiting loved ones. You are all much appreciated.

“ Nelson, Dorian and family. Carolyn will be greatly missed. She and my mom (Mary Griffin) shared a special lifelong bond, they were cousins but close as sisters. They shared a lot of laughs and I mean a lot. I loved watching them together, Carolyn would have my mom in tears from laughing so hard. After my mom passed away in 2014, Carolyn regularly called to check on me and sent me numerous cards of encouragement. I will never forget that, it meant so much to me, especially since she was grieving the loss herself. I will miss our talks. Keeping you in our thoughts and prayers. Shonya & Tim Odom
