

Carroll L. Edwards

July 20, 1945 - May 9, 2021

Carroll Leevon Edwards “Stretch”, age 75, born July 20, 1945, passed May 9, 2021. He was a resident of Dora, AI for over 45 years. He attended Dora High School but later graduated from Carbon Hill High School. He served in the Army National Guard as an Air Evac Medic from 1965-1972. He trained and worked as a sheet metal-insulator with the Local 78 Union, spending the majority of his career as a foreman at Miller Steam Plant. He owned and operated Edwards Land Developing, during his career and into his retirement years. Throughout his life he was a devoted Christian serving his community as an usher, member of the men’s council and deacon. A long-standing member of the Dora Church of God. All who knew him were touched by his loving-kindness and willingness to help those in need.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dewey C. Edwards, and Kathleen Utley Edwards.

He is survived by his wife of 56 years, Linda Jo Dutton Edwards; their children, Linda Caroline Edwards Stephens (Andrea) and Daniel Carroll Edwards (Natalie); grandchildren, Jessica Motte Mashburn (Richard), Jordan Potts Bozeman (Zac), Jaden Potts, Caleb Edwards, Jenna Stephens, and Emma Edwards; great-grandson, Tucker B. Bozeman; his siblings: Gaylon Edwards, Aaron Edwards, Judy Edwards Smith, and Linda Kay Edwards Smith.

His memory will be abundantly treasured.

Graveside services to honor his life in Christ will be held at New Horizon Memorial Gardens on Friday, May 14, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. Rev. Lewis Smith will officiate. Visitation will be from 12:30-1:00 for the family, all family members are welcome. The family will receive friends from 1-2 pm. Everyone is invited to attend the graveside service.
