“ Charles Daling "Rip" Creel, one of my mentors in Creeltown in the 1930-40 period of time. Your wisdom and advice were always "right on" and subsequent to your return from the Great War, you continued as a great inspiration to me. Your father and mother, Elbert and Tezzie, were great. Your siblings were great people. I am fortunate to have a photo of you from the 1943 Dora High School Yearbook.
