“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.

“ Debbie and family, I am so sad reading about Papa Chuck's passing. I have fond memories of visiting his house for a cookout and "wedding" in 1996. Love and prayers to you.

“ Charles Langston was an awesome man, father, grandfather, great grandfather, and friend to many. His love of God was apparent in all who knew him as his door was always open to all. To know him was to love him. Pop's journey of life was filled with so many people and memories, he was truly blessed by God and will be missed by many. Love you Pop and thank you for being the Dad I needed. My heart breaks but I know you are singing with the angels and whole again.
