“ Your mother was a wonderful lady. My mom, Edith Farmer, lived across the hall from her at Episcopal Place and she just adored and admired your mom so much. Your mother was an inspiration to us all with her positive attitude and outlook on life. I know you will miss her dearly. Fay Farmer

“ The BEST mother anyone could have ever asked for in life. My mother enjoyed her life to the fullest and truly loved people with all of her heart. She never met a stranger. Growing up with her was so much fun, she firmly believed that education was essential and instilled that thought in both me and my sister. She loved her family and always made an effort to be involved in each of her nine brother's lives. She encountered many obstacles in her life. However, with a positive attitude, she made the best of each situation. Somehow she persevered and made it through these personal, emotional, financial and physical challenges. My mother has been the most influential person in my life by far. Life is going to be very different for me now that she is no longer with us, here on Earth. It is wonderful to know that we will be reunited in Heaven again one day. Until then, I will miss my sweet loving mother.

I love you mother....Gary
