“ So sorry for your tragic loss. the pain is unimaginable to some who hasn't lost a beloved child but knowing you will be reunited with him someday for eternity will hopefully give you some comfort in these most trying times. ~ Chenkie & Wayne Broyles

“ The pain of losing a child (no matter what age they are) is the hardest of all to bear. But God never leaves us to bear this pain alone. He will hold you up when you cant stand, He will walk beside you when you feel you cant take another step. He is so merciful and gracious and He takes care of our children when we cannot. Take comfort in knowing that Christian is waiting for you and that he is in the best place he could possibly be. God will help you have peace, Praying daily for you all.

“ Proverbs 21:30 warns men not to fight against God, and Proverbs 21:31 warns them not to fight without him."...Christian understood that...

Rene , you raised a good man. His life lived among us is a testament of your love for Christ. You clearly instilled that love within your son. Although you will miss him everyday, you can rest in the peace of knowing that his fight is finished. His race has been won...You will see him again.... That my friend, is Peace beyond understanding.

We all love you . God bless you and your family.

“ Last time I saw Christian was at Green Top. I had just pulled over to get pictures of a really unique, gorgeous 3 wheel Motorcycle, and Christian had just walked out of Green Top, he apparently wanted to get a closer look too. He walked over to talk and we spent some time talking. My sons are Dan and Doug but Christian always took the time to talk to me too (an un-cool Mom lol). Christian was just that way, always smiling, always friendly, always polite

I am praying for his family. I hope they are comforted knowing just how many lives Christian had touched. How he made so many people feel special. He was much loved by this community and will be missed for a long time to come

“ Christian was always a very polite and respectful young man whenever I saw him. Rene' you can rest assured that you did a fabulous job as a mother. Also, know that you poured so much love into him in the relatively short time you had him with you here on earth. I am continuously praying for you and your sweet family that God will wrap His arms of love around you and give you peace that only comes from Him.
