“ Mother, I miss you every day. I do, however, have so many great & hilarious memories of you. You were always a lot of fun. When I was a child I wanted to look like you because I thought you were so pretty. When I was a teenager I dealt you pure heck. As an adult our friendship blossomed into a wonderful thing. When Tommy & I took care of you, you became my baby. I loved you in every single stage and still love you. You were always there for me, no matter what. I still wish I looked as beautiful as you did, but I would settle for any one of the numerous good traits that God blessed you with. I LOVE YOU MOMMA and I know we'll meet again in Heaven.
