“Sindy was an amazing woman her love and compassion for others. From the day we met we had an instant bond as mothers life an experiences. God blessed me with her friendship beyond belief she wanted nothing from no one and gave all of herself to everyone else. I am truly heartbroken that I would not have my friend anymore to call to text to go get and spend time with we were like two peas in a pod. While she lives with me my husband and my son I've never had so much fun and laughter in my life she brought Joy and to not only my world but my family's. We will miss her so and love her until we see her in heaven because that's where I know she is. My husband being a pastor she loved to talk about the Bible with him. Sindy had such a wonderful impact on m until she and I both laughed so hard. Sindy was a person that impacted your life and that you'll never forget her love for outgoingness and the Sunshine that was around her when she was there as well as the love for her family and her son she was so proud of. I will miss my friend immensely until I see you again Sindy Lou Who you were loved beyond words. Karry and Steve Sheridan
