“ Sgt. Dale Herald was a wonderful leader, mentor and co-worker at Minor High School, during his SRO days. Dale was a great man, who all loved. He will be missed by those of his MHS alumni, as well as all those that held him dear in their hearts and prayers. He was one of God's true blessing to students, faculty, teachers and his animals.

“ We will always remember his love for helping at Adamsville Ballpark and even how he kept a positive attitude after injuring his knee while playing on the parents vs coaches ballgame at the homecoming pep rally. He always gave his all and was a wonderful role model. He will be greatly missed until we see him again. Prayers for his beautiful family.
