“ Delma will truly be missed, her sweet smile as she came into the sunday school class was so special to all that was there and you didnt have to be around her but a few minutes before she expressed her love for the Lord, her faithfulness to Him was so evident in her daily walk. We are praying for the family and we know it wont be long before we see her again. Many times we discussed what it will be like in heaven and now she knows. Jesus took her by the hand and brought her home.
