“ Dennis, you were always just like a dad to me. Always so kind, caring, and a wonderful man, daddy, and papaw. It breaks my heart you had to leave us so soon. But I know you are walking free in heaven now and breathing just fine with no more pain. I remember the day Casey told you we were getting married and you just hugged me and said I'm glad you're going to be my daughter in law. I'll miss the way Mason would wrestle you until he wore the both of you out and he would just fall asleep on you for hours. You raised two good men and I am blessed to be a part of your family. We miss you beyond words and love you to the moon dad.

I did not know Dennis as and adult. I knew him as a child in school. All the Posten children were kind and considerate. I am so sorry for their loss of a family member.
