“ A memory of sister Fay is like a light that lite a room she was always warm and smiled all the time even if she had had a bad day with pain she was always kind and thought of others. I can remember on dinner days at church when she was there she always would tell me leave those dishes alone ill get them even when she did not feel like it she said it was the least she could do for such a good meal. I would say know but granny Fay would say who is the oldest and i say yes mam. She will be missed but if we have half of the grace and love she had will be a light to carry on for her. She always found the good in everyone no mather how bad they were are had been she went around doing good just as Christ did big shoes to fill. Love you granny Fay hope it want be long till i see you.

“ *Mother, I am so lost without you here. I know that this pain will pass. But, I miss you so very much...This all happened so fast. Proves a point that we all must be ready to meet our maker...And, God gave me the best Mother...I follow in your footsteps and do what the Lord leads me to do, but it was better when you were here...I take comfort in knowing that you finally are rest...Wish I were with you Momma, but until God calls me home I still have work to do...I love you...
Your loving daughter,
Pamela*
