“ At the Foundry Farm, Drennen's most favorite Christian song was FIRM FOUNDATION (HE WON'T) by Maverick City. Whenever I hear this song, I think of Drennen. If the Lord ever blesses me with a son, I'd want him to be like Drennen in his heart, his faith, and his personality. In the WIZARD OF OZ movie, The wizard gave the Tin Man a heart, and he said, "A HEART ISN'T JUDGED BY HOW MUCH "YOU" LOVE, BUT BY HOW MUCH "YOU" ARE LOVED BY "OTHERS". Well, observing by how many people came to Drennen's funeral yesterday, it was extremely evident that Drennen was loved very much, and by many many people. To Drennen's mom and dad, A BIG THANK YOU FOR BRINGING DRENNEN INTO THIS WORLD. It was highest honor to know him. Thank you.

“ I’m praying for everyone close to Drennen, especially Alana. He loved you so very much. I pray that God covers you through this. This isn’t goodbye forever. It’s just see you later. I can’t imagine the pain that you are feeling right now. I’m so sorry that you were excluded from this part of the grieving process when you were the biggest part of his life. Please know we are here for you no matter what. We love you ☐

“ I knew Drennan "DADDY SHARK" Hutchins from the FOUNDRY FARM in Cullman, AL. Drennan was like a little brother to me. He excelled in Bible reading, class attendance, church attendance, classwork in his textbooks, being a positive role model. He was an excellent guy. As a brother and a friend, I loved him to the uttermost in Christ's name. The terrible news of his passing utterly broke my heart. There will never be another Drennan. (I called him DADDY SHARK because of the DADDY SHARK shirt his kids gave him for Father's Day).

I love you and miss you, my brother, DADDY SHARK. When I look up to the sky (Heaven), I see you. Take care, my brother. 😭😭

Love, Brother Charles Fardette

“ Alana I am so very sorry for the loss of Drennon for you and your children. Everyone that knew Drennon knew how much love he had for you! I pray that God will comfort and keep you, the babies and the extended family! I pray that one day you two will meet again and with Gods overwhelming love will comfort you all in the days ahead of you! Stay strong and look to God for guidance and understanding as you need to lean on him and only him. The devil lurks and some things you have to put God first and he will show you the way. Allow him to strengthen you! May Drennon experience everlasting peace 🙏

I am left with the feeling that there is something he wants me to do for him. I just haven't figured it out yet. It may be to reach out to his fellow "brothers" in need as they wrestle with "their" struggles. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
