I Loved my Aunt Earleen, I was same age as Arthur. We were playmates. I would go to her house and I remember her as a really nice sweet lady. I only have a few memories of her because I was so young when Uncle Joe moved them to California. One memory I remember the most. She was sweeping the living room floor and she told me to raise my feet up and let her sweep underneath them. Then she said now you won't never get married.
