“ In the early 1980s, Eddie and I were coworkers at Jim Burke Nissan. He was consistently pleasant, friendly, and encouraging. He was also capable of fixing almost anything, as many people are aware. Since many of us have relocated and changed employment over the years, we have lost contact. I will always cherish our friendship, he was a person of integrity and loved cars. I'm lifting up prayers for the family.

“ My husband and Ed worked together for many years at Jefferson County. Scott had the utmost respect for Ed. He was truly a man of his word. He could fix just about anything. And he was always so pleasant to be around.

Wanda, my heart breaks for you and the family. I know that you will miss Ed dearly. Please know that we are praying for you and the family during this difficult time.
