“ Eric and Helen were such devoted friends to my mom-in-law, Evelyn Kelly. When Evelyn worked with Eric at the apartment complexes, she was sure to tell us all how much she looked forward to days spent with Eric. She admired his hard work and always getting the job done. Many years ago, Eric laid down carpet for Evelyn at her home, and Eric agreed to accept payment with a barter agreement from my daddy-in-law, Bobby. (During our teen years, Kevin, Evelyn's youngest son and my now husband, always thought that was so cool of them making such an agreement.) The Kellys always appreciated how relaxed and friendly Eric chose to be, regardless of how long he knew you.

I know if Evelyn was still here, she'd want to brag on her true friend one more time. Thanks, Eric and Helen, for always being a wonderful friend to Evelyn. We will always be appreciative of that for her.
