“ George was a dear, sweet soul, with a gentle voice and a quiet strength in his words. His love for his family was definitely a driving force in his life, and he was a model in how to be a Christian man in this day and age.

I know he will be missed greatly by his family, and but we can rejoice in knowing that he is home with the Lord.

Kim, Madison, and I send all our love and prayers to Debbie and the family.
