“ I am very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Cain. I did not know him personally, but I am sure that he will be missed very much by his family and friends. Understandably, losing a loved one in death is a very emotional and sorrow filled time. But please know that you are not alone and that we have wonderful hopes for the future. God takes notice of your sorrow, and he has promised us that soon, no one will lose a loved one in death ever again (Isaiah 25:8). We also have the hope of being able to enjoy life with our loved ones who have passed away in death again (Acts 24:15). I hope that these thoughts will provide the family and friends of Mr. Cain with a measure of comfort.

“ Dear Renee and Family,
Our thoughts and most of all our prayers go out to you and your whole family during these days and the days to come. May you feel God's peace as people are praying.
Glenn meant so much to so many and will greatly be missed among us.
His calm spirit, smile and courage are some of the the things.
I was gone to Texas and didn't get back home until late in Wednesday and didnt get to go to the funeral home and today we had to work.
I know people say it so much, but if you need anything.....please call on me.

Love,
Charles and Sonya Nix

“ Renee and family, I just want to let you know that you are in my prayers. I saw this scripture and wanted to share it with you. Every time you become saddened by Glenn's leaving us remember that he is basking in the eternal beauty of Jesus Christ. For Glenn, everything is perfect now!

One day, those of us that believe and call upon His name will be side by side with Glenn in Heaven. What a glorious thought to meditate upon. I love you and will be here for you when you need me!

REVELATION 7:15-17

15 Therefore, "they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. 16 Never again will they hunger; never again will they thirst. The sun will not beat upon them, nor any scorching heat. 17 For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd; he will lead them to springs of living water. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

“ Renee,

We know how hard a time like this is. We just want you to know how much we love you and that our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. Glenn was a wonderful man and he will be missed by many people. Our church family will miss his smile and greeting every Sunday and Wednesday. No matter how bad his was feeling he always had a smile on his face and a friendly greeting.

Love and Prayers,

Melanie, Ashley and Donald Dale Jr.

“ To the Cain family; May each day become more bearable than the last day and may you have comfort and support. As Proverbs 17:17 says " A true companion is loving all the time and is a brother that is born for when there is distress." May you have that true companion now and in the days to come.
