“ Greg was one of the kindest guys I had ever met and was an exceptional painter. He took great care of a lot of my clients as a real estate agent who needed their homes painted before they listed or after they purchased their homes. They would always call me after he finished to let me know what a wonderful and professional guy he was for them. I considered him a great friend and he sure will be missed! I'm praying for comfort for his family.
