“Helen was a wonderful lady and good friend. She helped our family in many ways during our move to Corner and enrolling the kids in school 40 years ago. We shared some really good times that made great memories of this incredible woman. She will be missed by many people. Sorry that we cannot attend her service today. Love and prayers to Sam, Chris, and her whole family. Our deepest sympathy, Larry, Johnnie, and the Warren family.

“Mrs. Hamrick worked in the office after I graduated. I hung around as the head custodian and one Christmas she surprised me with a Japanese pie with raisins. I loved it and every year at Christmas she would make me one. I really appreciated Her and Mr.Sam for all the love and encouragement they gave me. I will always cherish those memories.
