Helen M. Robbins

Faithful servant of God, precious mother, beloved grandmother, and woman of quiet strength

Born October 27, 1931 Passed away June 18, 2025

Helen Robbins, 93, of Adamsville, AL passed away unexpectedly, Wednesday June 18, 2025. Though her passing was unexpected, her life was a testament to unwavering faith, deep compassion, and the beauty of a life well-lived.

Helen was a devoted member of Adamsville Church of Christ for over 70 years & cherished her church family dearly. Her faith was her foundation & she built her life on it with joy & devotion. Her faith was not just spoken — it was lived out in every act of kindness, every prayer, and every quiet moment of grace.

She had a deep love for her home and her garden, where she spent countless hours tending to her flowers and watching the seasons change. Her garden, like her life, was full of color, life, and care — a reflection of the gentle soul behind it.

She made lasting memories with her children, grandchildren, & Great-grandchildren that helped shaped who they are today. Her strength, warmth, & wit shaped their lives in ways words can't fully capture-her legacy will echo through their lives forever. Her love will never leave us.

To know Helen was to be loved by her. Though she is no longer here, her legacy is. We see her in the blooms of flowers, in the stillness of the morning, in every act that carries her heart forward.

Helen was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 68 years, Kelly Robbins, whom she longed to be reunited with in heaven. Sisters, Colleen Moss & Mavis Stokley. Bothers, Travis Mullinax, Jerry Mullinax, James (JH) Mullinax, & Ronald Mullinax.

I met Helen when she was the shampoo lady and immediately fell in love with her, looking forward to my weekly visit. She was the most kind and loving person, always the same and touched so many lives. I looked forward to being with her again one day.
