“ I have several memories of Herman that always bring a smile to my face!

We went to Biltmore with Herman and Alice one year when Kendyl was around 5 years old. Kenneth and I could not find Kendyl and of course we panicked! We were looking everywhere for him and calling his name quite loudly! We finally found him with Herman sitting outside the gift shop and neither had a care in the world! Herman told us that Kendyl was bored in the gift shop and told him to come with him! Of course, Kendyl was in good hands, but we didn't know they had walked out of the shop!

Another memory is when we worked elections together. It was always very long hours. I was too tired to put makeup on and I walked into work and Herman "screamed" and asked me where my face was because I scared him! He did it every day! LOL!

He was quite the character! And I love him very much! The world won't be the same without Herman in it! But I am happy to know he will be waiting on me in heaven to ask where my face is when I get there!
