

James Troy "Jimmy" Coffee Jr.

August 20, 1954 - February 19, 2020

James Troy "Jimmy" Coffee, Jr., age 65, of Dora, passed away at his residence on February 19, 2020 surrounded by his loved ones. Jimmy is preceded in death by his parents James Troy Coffee, Sr. and Earnestine Coffee-Whitten. He is survived by his sons, James Patrick (Laura) Coffee and Christopher Michael Coffee; grandchildren, Keaton Troy Coffee, Cotton Paul Coffee, Raycelyn Claire Coffee, Kori Chevelle Coffee, Asa James Coffee and Bristol Stella Coffee; brother, Barry (Joy) Coffee; sister, Jean Coffee (Bob) Chappellear; nephew, Scott Chappellear; nieces, Susie Coffee and Christie (David) Eltzroth as well as a host of cousins and friends. Jimmy was a great man. He was a wonderful father and grandfather and enjoyed watching his grandchildren play. Jimmy was an avid fisherman spending as much time as possible on the Warrior River. He liked riding his tractor, watching Westerns, Braves baseball and Supercross racing. The family would like to extend special thanks to Affinity Hospice and his personal caregiver, Linda Pugh for their loving care and support during his final days. A Memorial Service will be scheduled at a later time. Online condolences can be made at www.Newhorizonmemorial.com.

“ Oh, rest in peace, Jimmy. You, with those smiling eyes and big kind heart, you were the best bike rider I knew! I was glad when you "graduated" to mini-bikes back when. Dora, eh, should have visited you! Great guy, I'm sure. Randy Brown

“ The things that I remember about Jimmy is how he made me laugh. He always had a funny joke or a funny story, and music, he just loved Hank Jr. he always wanted Jeff to bring his guitar to a family gathering. Jimmy and Jeff would just sit around singing Hank songs. We were very entertained. But I think most of all I remember how kind he was and how much he loved his family. He was so proud of you boys. You dad was a wonderful man. We loved him so much.
