“ Every time I was able to visit my dad, or when he visited me, he always made me feel so special, like his little girl, even though I wasn't little anymore, but I guess to him I was HIS little girl. I will always remember my dad as a man who could do anything he set his mind to... fix anything, build anything, and oh how he lived to fish. I think next to fishing he most loved to just be busy and was always ready to help anyone who needed help. But most of all, I know and am thankful for his love of the Lord. And I look forward to looking upon the face of our Lord, along with dad and other loved ones when HE returns for us. I know for myself, and speaking for my dad, that we hope all our loved ones and friends still here will choose to spend eternity with us in Heaven someday. Until then, Dad I love you and will miss you.

“ I miss my grandfather so much. I lived with my grandparents 3 years ago before I moved to Oklahoma and another time before in Arley. I miss going to church with them every Sunday, eating breakfast together at the kitchen table every morning. He called me baby girl. My regret is not being out there sooner and being so far away. My heart is broken, but I know that he is in Heaven now, and he isn't in pain anymore.
