“ Brother James or Papa Myrick as I know him, was the sweetest, loving, and most welcoming person I've ever met. I knew him my entire life and in 27 years I've never seen him get mad, be mean or anything. Always a smile. And his heart was so warm and soft. He loves for me to sing at church. His and Mama Myricks favorite song was Through The Fire. Every time I hear it, I'll think of him and remember that sweet smile on his face as I sang it.
