“ My heart is broken and my head is having trouble accepting that Jamie is gone. She was my friend for about 30 years. I will so miss her sweet, funny, loving personality. Her laugh was contagious and her love for others was endless. She was blessed to have wonderful parents that brought her up to be the amazing woman she was and to have the close relationship with her brother, Jon and her "sister", Donna. She was also fortunate to have found a Godly man to share her life with and raise her children to know and love God. She was loved and will be missed by so many. Her passing has left a hole in my heart but her sweet memories will help to fill that hole.
I love you Jamie Dawn!

“ Jamie and I went way back. Thirteen years ago she gave me a bridal party and was my wedding coordinator. Greg and Jamie taught the first Sunday School class for us as a married couple, too. Then, when I had a baby tea in honor of my twin sons, she was alongside me to celebrate. But, little did I know that God would bring us together so closely as mothers. I would not be the mother I am for my children today without Jamie. God knew what He was doing, of course, when He convicted us to join New Temple. He knew that Jamie was the friend who would provide me guidance, love, support, ideas, understanding, compassion, and empathy where most could not. Jamie knew endurance that many cannot comprehend. I will greatly miss our heart to heart conversations. I will greatly miss Jamie's smile. I will greatly miss Jamie's honest laugh.
