“ Uncle J.T. you were a testament of true honor, love, and decency! I am so proud to have called you my Uncle. You were the epitome of what a man of God should be. You had the ability to make everyone feel special. You were hysterical, and we always had our ongoing joke of being fighting buddies. You are the champion of the fight.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

King James Version

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

I miss you sir. I know you are with God, and are no longer in pain. I can't wait to see you again so we can joke about whose crown is bigger.

I will see you again my fighting buddy.

God speed my sweet Uncle J.T.

With all my love,

Cassie Vaughn Covey

Thank you Daddy for being more than just a father. you have led me by your example. You molded me into anything good I have become and all else were my bad choices and a waste, still you loved me inspire of my failures and short comings. You taught me how to be a good husband, a good daddy and grand father. You guided me I when I enlisted and with great insight and wisdom you counseled me when I became an officer. all good things in my life have been a direct blessing from God through your upbringing. Tell my grand babies there with you all about us and make them laugh as you did us. I'll take care of mom and my brother and sister and the family as a whole. ill not say good bye sir, but I will say, "I'll see you in a little while. I love you Daddy". Semper fi."
