“ I remember the first time Josh introduced me to Eric and amanda huddleston! I immideately fell in love with them so sweet and wonderful joyous people! I also had the honor of meeting there new born son John Luke., It was love at first sight! I grew so attached.. He was all mine everytime we visited I will always cherish every second I was blessed with that sweet 😇 angel! Lord knows I loved him dearly. I will miss him dearly but the lord decided it was time for him to come home. Rest in peace sweet angel fly high :) your safe with Jesus now.
