“ i still remember the first day I saw kay. i had gone to church with my grandpa at mceuil baptist church. there was this pretty girl sitting on the same bench as me and my grandpa. i was about 15. i used to walk miles and miles from shannon to lipscomb to see her and her family. they were like my family. i will surely miss her and if there is ever been anyone who is going to heaven, it will be kay.
