“ Keith you were such a sweet guy that could be funny, and had a great laugh and smile. I really enjoyed growing up together, we all had a lot of fun just being a bunch of country kids, just like the day that a few of us went riding in your sisters car out around the WJ Dam, we had a lot of fun, but her poor car, I don't know how she couldn't tell it had been through the ringer after being on those old dirt roads, and then there's the time that I came to my first boy, girl party at your house, and I thought that it was so cool, and that I was the youngest kid there. Well, there are a lot of those good ole memories that I will forever cherish, thanks for sharing them with me. Fly high in Heaven and rest forever peacefully in the arms of Jesus. God bless your family, and much love to them, they are forever in my prayers as my loved ones, just like you.
