“ Cathy, You and Kelvin made such a handsome couple. Appears neither of you have aged at all. So sorry for your loss but Kelvin is in such an amazing place now. So I will say my best memory of Kelvin was when he sang Thank You Lord from the Apostle. I still remember every word of that whole thing. I think it's my best memories of youth in general. You guys made such a beautiful family with your kids looking like you with just the right amount of freckles from their Dad. I know you will miss him. He was a great Godly man. Sorry for your loss Loria Green Belcher

My heart breaks for Kelvin's family. He meant so much to the youth female athletes as he coached and mentored them. My memories of this family are all very precious. May the days to come with the absence of your dearest husband and father be more bearable knowing that we are all praying for you. Toni Geddings
