“Wow! It has now been an entire month since you have left us. There have been so many times I wanted to pick up the phone and call you to tell you something you needed to know. Josh is just now beginning to talk about everything. We don't understand why you had to leave us so early but I know that God has a plan. We miss you and are remembering the good times we had together all the vacations, the ball games, the time spent with family. I hope that you are finally resting without any struggles. I believe that you would be happy to know that your services were carried out to the best of my ability as you have requested over the years. I know that the hurt will not end over night but I sure do wish that things could have been different. You have told me for the past couple of years that no one cared about you. Oh but if you could just have seen the hurt that people have had.....I honestly don't think you had any idea how much or how many people did love you. The out pouring of love that has been shown to Josh would make you proud.
