“ I am sad to hear about my friend Lecil, I got to know and enjoy his friendship starting back in the 70's . Lecil had a special way of getting a laugh out of ya no matter what kind of day you were haveing. His smile and friendship will surley be missed by anybody that ever got that chance to know him .Our prayers and condolences are with his family and friends and I will be looking up at night and seeing a special star that stands out from all the rest .
