In lieu of flowers the family request remembrances be made in the form of random acts of kindness. Linda was a kind person who would give anyone the shirt off her back, and the world could certainly benefit from more kindness. So, think of Linda throughout the coming days and smile at someone; hug someone; hold the door open for someone; forgive someone; use social media for good; make a donation to your favorite charity; find a random "GoFundMe" account and donate; send cards to the local senior home; donate blood; pay for the person's bill in line behind you, wherever you may be -- grocery store, movie theater, coffeeshop, or fast-food restaurant; volunteer at a place of your choice; or, create your own random act of kindness in Linda's memory keeping in mind, "kindness is a kind of magic, in return we get love which is eternal."

“ I hate to hear this. Linda was my boss at Piggly Wiggly and I grew up across the street from Randy. She was such a sweet, kind and fun person. My condolences and prayers for the family.

“ I've known Linda for several years and she was a spunkie, energetic, tell it like it is kinda lady and was always fun to be around. Linda had a big heart and loved her family. I have seen her go out of her way to help her friends. and others in need. The most important lesson I have learned form Linda was to always be positive, help others when you can and love your family. She is in a better place now. My prayers are with her kids, grand kids and all her family.
