Lou we are so broken I just can not believe you are not here with us.please let God know we need more help than ever.in church yesterday I did not know what to ask for,it is like I can not feel anymore..Lou you know my sister is the strongest person we have ever seen.I have never seen anything that could shake her but this did all the way to her core.Joey is been so amazing,he is that strong amazing man you know he would be,and your daughter in law is just as amazing.together i do believe they can get Connie through this..James is .just broken and he looks lost,but I know he has faith,right now he needs it more than ever.God must have needed an amazing handyman so he came to get the very very best.you have always been the core of this family,and now I have no clue what we are going to do.I know when we look up at night you are that amazing star that is shinning the bightest because that is when we need you the most..Lou we well never be the same but we well stand as strong as we can.I well not say goodbye just SEE YOU LATER we love and miss you more than you well ever know.

“ Well i have been trying to think of one special time i had with u to share but i cant seem to just think of one. Lou u were like my second dad and was always here when i needed u. I will never forget the Sat. trips to the dump and that one special time we both cried. Because u stopped and got us a slim jim and dr. pepper just like papa always did. U told me so many things but always said take time and spend it with those boys cause they are growing up way to fast and we want ever get that time back. So true but i wish i would have took more time to spend with u!!! I promise im going to do better at just spending time with everybody.

I know u are so proud of Joey and Melissa the way they done everything and took all of the worry from Aunt Connie. Im not to sure what shes going to do without u Lou but i promise ill go fight with her and keep her and ur girls company every chance i have. During the last few days u would have been so proud of everybody all the love and support that rallied around the family. We are truly blessed Lou!! Thank u for the last phone call we had as well as coming up Friday and seeing us. I know God gave us those last few times to help get through this but this is one of the hardest things i have had to do. Not to sure how dads going to pull through with out u either. He isnt doing real well so please help give him some peace..

Last 2 things to share Lou, i know u was laughing ur butt of about grannys bra following us around the funeral home. Just glad it didnt end up with u..last thing i know u couldnt be late to ur funeral but did u really have to hold us up for 2 hours waiting on the vault.. We all knew it was u doing it as slow as u could just like every thing else. Dont worry Lou we will all pull together and make it some how as well as making sure Aunt Connie does but please give papa, granny rie ,granny manning , davie and uncle grady a great big hug from me and tell the i love them that there isnt a day i dont think of them.. Also give Joe a shock with his button and tell him its from me lol!! oh give Aaron a little help along the way as well.. I so wish i could look at things like Ayden he sung u ur favorite song and said bye he would see u in heaven soon!

We all miss u and love u so much Uncle Lou!!
