“ My dear friend Lucy. We were quite the pair at Sayre Baptist Church. I always told her that she had to be Ethel because I was Lucy. What precious memories. Sunday morning when I talked to Angie, I told her to lean down and whisper in Lucy's ear, for her only to hear, that just for that one day she could be Lucy. Oh my friend I miss you.

See you again, "If you hasten off to Glory, linger near the Eastern Gate; for I'm coming in the morning, and you'll not have long to wait".

What I can only imagine she is seeing and living live and in living color.
