“ *Dear Jane's family,
I miss Jane every day and sometimes I just want to call her and chat. But, I still talk to her in my heart and mind. Our friend Shelby Hicks Gotter in Chicago is very ill and in the hospital. Please pray for her recovery and know that your mom will always have someone in Raleigh, NC that misses her. She was my dear, dear friend.
Take care of each other,
Gail*

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one.

It is times like these that we need encouragement from loved ones and friends. The Bible has also proved a source of encouragement to many during these times as well. The Bible at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4 tells that God is the Father of tender mercies and that he comforts us in all our tribulations. He does this by means of his word. One such example can be found at Acts 24:15 where it speaks of the resurrection of the dead. This means that you as family have the hope of seeing your dear one again. Also Isaiah 33:24 tells us that one day no person will get sick, so that means when you see your loved one again he will be healthy. Revelation 21:4 tells us that the day when persons cry for the loss of loved ones is soon to be over because it speaks of death being done away.

I hope that these thoughts from the Bible will prove to be a source of encouragement to all of the family.

“ Dear Family of Jane Sanford,

Jane and I went to high school at DHS together. She was a dear friend and we enjoyed working on 1962 high school reunions together. I am so sorry for your loss and you all are in my prayers.
