

Mark Alan Caradine

May 29, 1968 - January 9, 2021

Mark Alan Caradine, age 52, of Quinton, passed away January 9, 2021. He is preceded in death by his mother, Nancy Tuggle and several Uncles and Aunts. Mark is survived by his father, John Caradine; children, Jordan Caradine, Morgan Caradine, Justan Caradine and Joseph Caradine; brother, Johnny Caradine, fiancé, Tanya Easterwood as well as many extended family members and friends. Mark was born and raised in West Jefferson. He was a wonderful son, father, brother and friend. Mark never met a stranger and took the time to speak with anyone who wanted to talk. He was a selfless, strong and hard-working gentleman. He enjoyed any activity that would get him outdoors. Mark spent hours on his tractor, working in his yard and in his garden. He was a fan of Auburn University and Pittsburgh Steelers football. Private services for Mark will be held in West Jefferson Freewill Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to The University of Alabama at Birmingham Corona Virus Response Fund.

“ I am so very sad to hear of Mark’s passing. He was truly one of a kind. We seemed to always find each other in Walmart and would talk for what seemed like hours reminiscing about past good times. I pray God surrounds you with his peace, comfort and love. Mark was a special person that was loved and will be missed by many. Love and condolences to the Caradine family. Lisa Allums Fleming
