Mary Fay Rogers Reaid of Dora, Alabama, was born March 22, 1927 and passed away on January 15, 2024, at her home that she loved. For days preceding her death, she was surrounded by her family who loved and adored her.

She is also survived by her sister, Joyce Rogers Mitchell, and her constant companion Girlfriend, her puppy.

Very special thanks to her granddaughter, Jessica Light, who has been her day-to-day caregiver for the last three years. Jessica enhanced and kept Maw Maw's quality of life in her last years.

Faye AKA Maw Maw Luv was a special person to all. She was funny, classy, truthful, loving, direct, and sometimes inappropriate! She believed in the best of people, and she lived her life in a manner before her children and those around her that honesty and truthfulness came first. She never compromised her integrity. For so many, she was a dedicated caretaker with the Visiting Nurse Association and went on later to take care of many family members. She loved life, laughter, her family, day trips with her children, birds, plants, crossword puzzles, cooking and baking, and crocheting. She left behind so many pieces of crocheted art that will be cherished by her family. But the biggest thing she is leaving behind is her legacy of love. She made everyone feel special and loved and was genuine in everything she did.

“ Maw maw was the grandmother to all of us from Suzanne channel. She made us laugh and smile and rarely cry. She kept Suzanne on her toes with each car drive. She taught Suzanne how to be a great person at delete and editing. Heaven is a little funnier now. The angel choir has a new member. And family members are holding hands again. Thank you for sharing her.

“ Dana, Suzanne and Family, I am so very sorry to hear of Aunt Fay's passing. Take comfort in knowing that she is no longer suffering or in pain. Keep the Memories you have of her and with her in your hearts forever. God Bless all of you now and in the coming days ahead. Please know that I am praying for all of you! I sincerely wish I could be there with all of you but alas I can only be in spirit. Take care of one another and know that I Love and Miss all of you!

Suzanne, I watch your YouTube channel and so enjoyed watching you and your mom interact with each other. She reminded me of my mom who has been in her heavenly home for 21 years. Your tribute to her and hearing the news about her going home made me cry, but what a long and beautiful life she led. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family 🙏
