“ I have always and will forever remember the beautiful love of Brother Don and Sister Lucy. He was the southern gentleman who cared for his bride; she was the bride who lovingly submitted to her husband. They were such faithful members at Good Hope, serving the Lord with an unwavering heart of humility and without hesitation. Although their first commitment was to Christ, it was so very clear that their second commitment was to each other. They were a fine example of how Christ intends Christian marriages to be, reflecting undying love, unity, and respect. Regardless of the time lived without Sister Lucy, no one can ever consider Brother Don without his Lucy.

~1 Corinthians 13:12~

"For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known."
