“ I met Brother Wayne at The Foundry. I was the bric-brac pricer and he was a counselor for the men and boys. He counseled me at times. I loved him as he was kind to me, shared The Word with me and told me the men and boys loved me because I gave them respect. I had not known that! I will always love him. Until we meet again, Brother Wayne! I just miss you so much. We stayed in touch after he left The Foundry.
