“ When I was pregnant with Stephanie, our choir went to Jean's restaurant for our Christmas party. I ordered a piece of cake for dessert and when the waitress brought it out, it was 1/4th of a whole cake. She said that Ricky told her that there was a pregnant lady out there craving cake. Everyone had a good laugh, especially Ricky. LOL

“ Lots of good memories, too many to name. He wasn't my blood cousin, but just as much as if he were. I always thought of him as a cousin. He will be greatly missed, playing guitar in church for one thing. RIP Ricky, you have just gone on ahead, we will follow soon.

“ I will never forget when Tim and I were first married and we went to watch a movie with Rick and Pegi. It was so funny and Rick liked it so much that he quoted it several times for long after. He made jokes about Ferris Buehler and we were always laughing with him. He could make you laugh always. We are going to miss him so much Pam and Tim DeFoor

It breaks my heart to loose Ricky. He was such a caring, loving person. When he called me, he would identify himself as "your favorite cousin" and then laugh. I think he was a favorite of everyone who knew him. He was definitely loved. I'll always miss him.
